- Active Healthy Kids Global Alliance (AHKGA) is a registered not-for-profit organization made up of researchers, health professionals, and stakeholders who work together to advance physical activity in children and adolescents around the world.
- AHKGA's vision is a world of active healthy kids.
- AHKGA's mission is to power the global movement to get kids moving through thought leadership, knowledge translation and mobilization, capacity building, and advocacy.
- The dominant effort of the AHKGA to date has been its Global Matrix initiative.

- The Global Matrix initiative involves the collaboration and cooperation of multiple jurisdictions working together to produce country Report Cards on physical activity of children and adolescents, following a harmonized process that allows for comparability, cross-fertilization of ideas to improve the grades, global networking, and the compilation and aggregation of international data across a series of indicators related to the physical activity of children and adolescents.
- To date, there have been four iterations of the Global Matrix initiative.

Historical timeline

2005

Due to growing concerns of physical inactivity among kids in Canada, the first Report Card on Physical Activity for Children and Youth was released by the not-for-profit organization Active Healthy Kids Canada.

2014

Toronto, Canada - Active Healthy Kids Canada organized the Global Summit on the Physical Activity of Children.

At the Global Summit 15 countries simultaneously released their respective country-specific Report Cards on Physical Activity for Children and Youth. Together this created the Global Matrix 1.0.

Due to the success of the Global Summit, the AHKGA was established.
